venerate but worship and adore the Blessed Sacrament for it is Jesus who is really present.

SEAMSTRESSES FOR ALTAR CLOTHS - The Parish Council and I are seeking talented seamstresses within our community to assist in creating proper altar cloths. These altar cloths are essential for our liturgical celebrations and come in four different liturgical colors: green, white, red, and purple. Currently, we do not have all the required colors, and we'd greatly appreciate your help in ensuring we have the right cloths for each season of the liturgical year. If you or someone you know possesses sewing skills and would be interested in contributing to this important apostolate, please don't hesitate to reach out to Father Martin or contact the parish office. Your support will play a vital role in enhancing our worship experience, and we warmly welcome anyone willing to join this meaningful endeavor. Thank you for your consideration and generosity.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

PRIESTS TEAMWORK - Fr. Emmanuel and Fr. MacAnthony of St. Michael's parish, and I are teaming up well by generously lending our time to celebrate Mass at others' parish when one of us needs help. This coming Saturday, Sept 30, our 5 pm Mass will be looked after by one of them. On Oct 3, 4, 5 & 6, it is time my time to return the favour by saying the midday Masses in Cobourg as they will be off to Edmonton for their religious community retreat.

PASTOR'S HOLIDAY - It has been 5 years that I have not taken my holiday. Also I have not been home to the Philippines that number of years. This time I will take my allowed 5 week holiday every year in a staggered manner. I will spend the first one week of it on October 10 to October 17, 2023.

WHOM TO BOW - Thanks to a parishioner who asked me this question recently: "to whom shall we bow during the celebration of the Mass, to altar or to priest?" When I was an altar server during my younger days, we, servers and liturgy ministers bowed to the priest. That's how we knew it. And I remember how our priest seemed to be enjoying, feeling like a king or Lord seeing people bowing to him. Obviously, our priest then did not know the norm. Now that I am a priest I should not fall into the same mistake of letting people bow to me instead to the Altar during Mass celebration. Neither will I enjoy being hailed or venerated during Mass instead of the Altar which is the center and focus of respect and reverence not the priest. BLESSED SACRAMENT VS. STATUES OR IMAGES - It is said that any statue of Jesus really looks like Jesus, but he is not. The Blessed Sacrament, in the other hand, does not look like Jesus, but he is. Images and statues are pure representations. That is why we just venerate them but never worship neither adore them. Where-as, the Blessed Sacrament, according to our Catholic belief, is not a symbol; it is the whole Christ truly present, body, blood, soul, and divinity. That is why we do not just
